09:00 AM - 03:00 PM EST
One of the largest and most popular holiday events in South Fairfax is back for its 19th year! The Lorton Holiday Extravaganza is set for Saturday, December 7 at South County High School.
This annual event draws thousands of shoppers from as far as North Carolina, West Virginia and Delaware! Looking for a great gift for someone hard to buy for?
One-of-a-kind pottery made on a wheel, handcrafted, body butter creams, smoked coffee, locally produced honey and lip balm, gourmet chocolates, hot chocolate bombs, holiday breads, cake pops, and pound cakes are also on the menu. You can have your kitchen utensils and other household items sharpened while you shop. Look for the Snippy Bros booth near the main entrance of the show. Santa's Book Emporium features gently used books in creative gift baskets that will delight the book lover on your list.
